

Letter of invitation :

This is to certify that Professor Bolette Modenhawer, Associate Professor in the section of Educational Research, Department of Media, Cognition and Communication of the University of Copenhagen, is invited to the University of Bordeaux by the Center Emile Durkheim as a visiting researcher from from Sept. 21 to Oct. 11 2015. During her stay she will give several lectures presenting preliminary results from the research project « Professional interventions as a state-crafting grammar addressing "the immigrant" funded by the Danish National Research Center. Her visit will also offer the opportunity to discuss the comparative dimensions of the project with Claire Schiff who is a member of the project's advisory board. And has previously worked with Prof. Moldenhawer on the European project Ethnic Differences in Education and Diverging Prospects for Urban Youth in an Enlarged Europe (EDUMIGROM FP7).

Travel and accommodation expenses will be covered by the danish funding sources for the project.

Bordeaux, June 11 2015

Éric MACÉ
Directeur-Adjoint
Centre Émile-Durkheim
UMR 5116 CNRS

Centre Emile Durkheim
3ter place de la Victoire
F-33076 Bordeaux Cedex
33 (0) 6 83 47 08 71

eric.mace@u-bordeaux.fr

<http://www.centredurkheim.fr>