NEWS JANUARY 2019

From February 1st 2019 Associate Professor Marie Sandberg will be the director of the Centre for Advanced Migration Studies (AMIS) hosted by the Saxo Institute. AMIS offers an international MA-programme in advanced migration studies and is an interdisciplinary forum for humanistic migration research combining approaches from literary studies, ethnology and anthropology, history, archaeology, religion, philosophy, socio-linguistics, media studies, etc.

Maria Frantzoulis will be the new AMIS coordinator. Maria is very experienced in international student administration, not least due to her long engagement in Danish Culture Course and the Erasmus exchange program. Maria will be the person, whom you will have direct contact with regarding exams, course assignments, Internship, Erasmus exchange, dispensations and so on. amis@hum.ku.dk.

If you are interested in learning more, Visit the official website of AMIS or, Visit AMIS on facebook.

To reply to this email, please write to the mail amis@hum.ku.dk

If you wish to unsubscribe please use this link: Unsubscribe