NEWS MARCH 2019

AMIS events for the remaining part of the 2019 spring semester

28 March 2019, 14:15-16:00
Crisis & Critique

Lecture by Didier Fassin (IAS and EHESS)

Read more through this link.

5 April 2019, 13:15-14:30

The 'innocence' of the "Children of the Caliphate"

The issue of the so-called ‘returnees’, i.e. European Fighters who have joined militias in the Middle-East in the aftermaths of the Arab Spring, belongs to one of the most controversial issues in the current political debates. Even more controversial, is the status of their children.

Read more through this link.

5 April 2019, 15:00-16:00

Book launch: Secular bodies, affects and emotions

This book is about how we can think about the secular as something that is practiced, felt and experienced.

Read more through this link.

3 May 2019, 13:30-16:00

Human Flow - Ai Weiwei

Human Flow is a documentary movie led by the internationally renowned artist Ai Weiwei. The documentary elucidates both the staggering scale of the refugee crisis and its profoundly personal human impact.

Read more through this link.

12 June 2019, 10:15-12:00

Solidarians and humanitarians in the land of Xenios Zeus: Responses to the "(European) migration crisis"

Lecture by Katerina Rozakou, independent researcher in social anthropology.

Read more through this link.
If you are interested in learning more, visit the official website of AMIS or, visit AMIS on Facebook.

To reply to this email, please write to the mail amis@hum.ku.dk

If you wish to unsubscribe please use this link: Unsubscribe